

What Are Grainwise Readers Saying?

“Grainwise keeps me current on a weekly basis with crop summaries and price quotes.”

David M. Bell Farming, Olds, AB (since 1998)

“I like reading Grainwise because it gives you an indication of what prices are doing. I like dealing with Market Master because the staff is efficient and courteous.”

Tore Lindstrom, Meeting Creek, AB (since 1997)

“This newsletter is the only single source of current prices paid. If not for this source, I would have to make 5—10 phone calls to determine what price is fair, when I think it’s time to sell.”

Alan Holt, Bashaw, AB (since 2000)

“I enjoy Grainwise because it gives me what other towns are getting for their products. Thanks to Market Master, we managed to get over $6.00/bu for fall canola.”

Dalton Trenholm, Newbrook, AB (since 1999)

“Simple and to the point. Grainwise is easy to read, informative, and no excess reading. We haven’t really dealt with Market Master yet but we’ll see how they do with a bunch of hailed out wheat.”

Don Gibson, Sangudo, AB (since 2000)

“I find Grainwise/Market Master the simplest way to keep track of what the grain market is doing.”

Ross Boese, Meeting Creek, AB (since 1998)

“The staff at Market Master have been helpful in answering any of my questions on marketing grain. Being a new farmer, they’ve given me information on how the market works and when the best time to price and market grain could be.”

Ward Clark, Mannville, AB (since 1999)

“Grainwise is very informative and convenient, giving a week’s overview in one report. Market Master keeps me up-to-date on the best deals, options, basis, etc.”

Carl Bergstrom, Meeting Creek, AB (since 1998)

What Are Grainwise Readers Saying?

"There are several things I like about dealing with Market Master. During busy seasons, conferring at night via email is handy. Also, when I do phone and get voice mail, 95% of the time my call is returned in less than 5 minutes. I like Grainwise for its concise, quick update of what is going on in the world of grain marketing that I can access via email at my convenience. But the biggest thing I like about Market Master is that I feel like they are on my team when it comes to trying to do the best job of marketing my grain. They are friendly and helpful on the phone and I feel they are watching out for opportunities for me to improve my bottom line. They have done well by me."

Stuart McMahon, Galahad, AB (since 1997)

"I like that Grainwise comes to me and I don't have to go looking for the information. I like that it is concise and condense yet loaded with needed information."

Kent Olsen, New Norway, AB (since 1997)

"Grainwise is very informative. It keeps me up on how the markets are doing."

Randy G. Cannan, Innisfree, AB (since 2000)

"I like reading Grainwise because it's a great summary of the markets and indicators coming. Market Master has been excellent to deal with. They'll work with you if there's a problem."

Tom Coppock, Castor, AB (since 1998)
